Kasey Willis Saddles Four Winners, Fastest in Remington Park Schooling Races Friday

OKLAHOMA CITY, OK—FEBRUARY 20, 2015—Trainer Kasey Willis tipped his hand with a strong group of two-year-olds that included four winners and the fastest clocking from 17 schooling races contested at Remington Park on Friday.

Willis saddled the winners of Races 4, 6, 10 and 13.

First Prize Corona broke sharp for Willis in the Race 13 fighting hard on the front end with Tyranic before gaining the advantage by a nose while covering the 250 yards in :13.67 seconds.

Jim Thorntanson purchased the Split Curl Jess filly privately from Weetona Stanley. She is out of the Corona Cartel mare First Prize Corona. Just missing, Tyranic held to tie with Mr Tac Me Up for the second fastest clocking of :13.68 seconds.

A homebred for Wade Helton, Tyranic is by Pyc Paint Your Wagon from the Mr Jess Perry mare Be Elegant. Madiyn Watts conditions the gelding.

Following up on work on February 19, Tyranic ranked 12 from 121 ages at Remington Park. Tac Me Up broke for the lead in Race 1, was in hand throughout as he pulled away to win by 2 1/4 lengths without
